PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Cool Care provides long-term electric bill savings for low-income customers by helping to replace their energy inefficient refrigerators with Energy Star® models.

The following eligibility requirements apply:

1. Must be a low-income GWP customer or low-income GWP customer landlord for at least 12 months.
2. Refrigerator to be replaced must be at least 10 years old, operable, and in regular use by a low-income GWP customer for primary food storage.
3. Low income landlords must agree to pay a $200 co-payment toward the new refrigerator. Payment to be made in 12 equal installments on the landlord's electric bill over 24 months.
4. Extended warranty is available for an additional fee. Landlord must accept or decline extended warranty in writing at time of installation. Extended warranty payment can be made in 12 equal installments on electric bill over 24 months.
5. In all cases, the low-income status of the customer/tenant using the refrigerator for food storage must be documented in one or more of the following ways:
 - a. Enrollment in GWP Senior Care
 - b. Enrollment in Gas Company Care
 - c. Enrollment in Phone Company Universal Lifeline
 - d. Enrollment in Glendale Section 8 Housing Program
 - e. Proof of income at or below income eligibility guidelines (see below)
 - f. Other suitable documentation of low-income from a local community based organization

I am applying for the Cool Care program. I understand the eligibility guidelines. The information provided in this application is true and correct. I understand that providing misinformation can result in disqualification for this and other PBC programs. I understand that if I am taking ownership of the refrigerator, I will be required to pay $200 towards the purchase of the new refrigerator. I understand that if I elect to purchase an extended warranty at an additional cost I must apply for such in writing at time of installation. Should I fail to pay the full cost of the new refrigerator and/or extended warranty at the time of installation, I authorize GWP to collect such payments in equal installments on my electric bill over two years from the date of replacement.
